

Year 3

Science highlights

Across the year, year 3 have been looking at the topic 'our changing world'. This exciting module is designed to introduce students the changing seasons and plants and their lifecycles, helping them to develop fundamental skills like observation through scientific enquiry.

In this half term, students have planted sunflower seeds and will be monitoring their growth over the next half term.

